

ZION MUSIK CONCERT SERIES

ZION Musik is the concert series of Zion Lutheran Church. Its goal and aim comes from Martin Luther's quote: "Next to the Word of God, music deserves the highest praise". In its first season, ZION Musik will present a wide variety of concerts.

All concerts are free and open to the public.

For more information please visit our website:

ZION MUSIK CONCERT SERIES

ZION MUSIK SPRING SEASON 2019

All concerts begin at 4:00 pm

February 24: Pennsylvania Flute Choir

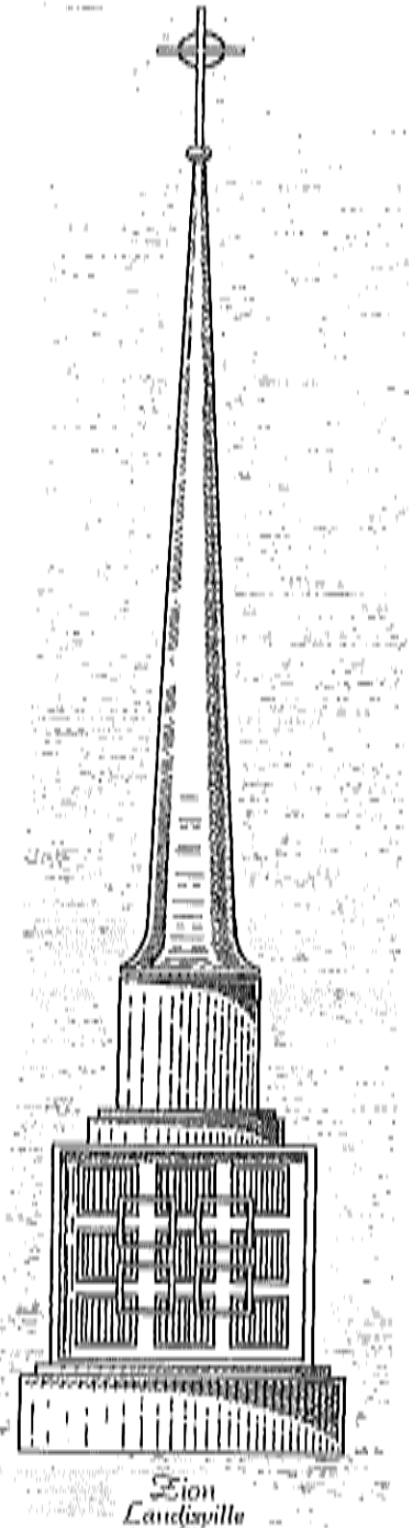

The Pennsylvania Flute Choir is an auditioned, Community group formed in 2002. Former Musical Directors include Debra Torok, professional recording artist, pianist, composer, conductor and teacher and Marc Adler, professional musician and educator. The choir has grown from a one-time recital group to an active, professional ensemble. Its 20+ members hail from southeastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The choir performs throughout the tristate region for engagements such as concert series performances, weddings, religious services, private parties, and music for special events. It also performs at regional flute fairs and flute society events and conventions.

March 24: Dr. Maria Corley, Pianist

Dr. Maria Corley was born in Jamaica, but grew up in Alberta, Canada. She had her first public performance at the age of eight. She has since appeared on radio, television, and concert stages in Canada, the United States, Central America, Bermuda, and Europe as both soloist and collaborative artist, including performances at Alice Tully and Carnegie Halls in New York City. A graduate of Alberta University, she also holds masters and doctorate degrees from the Julliard School. She juggles ongoing careers as concert pianist, music teacher, voice actor, and writer with her duties as choir director at St. Thomas and mother of two fabulous kids. It makes for a hectic but very full life!

May: Silver, Wood and Ivory (Date TBD)

Silver, wood, and ivory are three creations of beauty found in nature. Together, this two-person orchestra of classically trained artists have fashioned a tapestry of music that stirs the soul. Tracy Dietrich and Cindy Wittenberg both have instrumental performance degrees: Tracy from Indiana University and Cindy from Elizabethtown College and Peabody Conservatory.
