From The Director of Youth & Family Ministries :

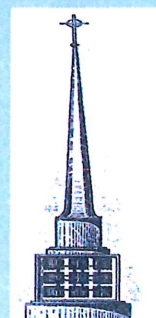

What Lent Means To A Post-Modern World

I have served as a youth worker, leader, mentor and minister as a volunteer for over 17 years. prior to working as a full time staff person since 2002. I am in my 35th year of 'working' with the younger generation. I am frequently asked by many 'older' Christians: What is the younger generation all about? Who are they? What are they searching for? What are their needs, wants, and desires as young Christians? These young people grow and mature into young adults, adulthood and middle aged adults. I have lived long enough to witness first hand former youth who are now celebrating the marriage of their children! Life does go on!

As I enter the autumn of my career I know that the world around me is changing, but the need for Authentic, Affirming and Available adults is actually growing. Our world is hurting. Our young people are searching for hope in a world filled with war, hate and division among its leaders (politically and socially). We are all busy. Even our young people are busier today than those who grew up in the 80s and 90s. The need for mentoring young people is at a critical level. By spending an hour a week or a month getting to know a young person can and will make a difference in today's ever hectic and violent world. I did not grow up with a fear that someone could or would enter school property with guns with the intent to harm others. Regardless of the violent and divided culture we now live in, today's teens and young children are searching for answers, for love, for acceptance, for a path so that they can have the opportunity to make a difference. Without these "AAA adults," the faith we share, and the hope and grace that we live in as Christians, is dimmed. We are to be lights in a dark world. We are to keep our promises at baptism and stand with a young person who struggles to see that light in a darkened world. Cont'd on page. 2

We all (as God's children) search and yearn for more of God in our lives. We are people of faith. We are the ones called to go out into that dark world and make disciples for Christ. May it start here, again, with Lent. The Lenten season allows Christians to reflect, pray, search, question, and yes, love and serve those who feel hopeless, unloved and unsure of just who God is. Today's young people, churchd and unchurchd are those very people who search and question the most.

We start in the dark of winter. As winter gives way to spring and the days lengthened, our friendships should deepen. The light and hope of spring is parallel to Lent. Darkness gives way to light. May our Lenten journey include sharing some of our time with the younger generation here, at Zion and in our community.

May we journey together in 2018, truly 'making a difference' in our world, by making a difference in a young person's life.

Fearless Generosity

Submitted by Darrell Gerke

Did you make any New Years resolutions for 2018? Have you already failed to keep one or more of your resolutions?

It is not too late to make a resolution or a pledge between you and God on an amount you plan to contribute to Zion for 2018. All the worldly gifts we have (money, a home , a car, an IRA account, etc) are gifts from God and the least we can do is give back to God and the Church.

You will be amazed how God will continue to bless you and you will have an inner peace knowing you are following Christ's instructions to all believers.

INVICTUS

After 27 years in prison and the defeat of apartheid in South Africa, in 1994 President Nelson Mandela faced the daunting task of uniting the black majority and the powerful white minority. How to do it? The movie Invictus demonstrates that forgiveness can heal a nation—and use sports to do it. (The movie title comes from the eponymous poem written by William Ernest Henley in 1875.) Released in 2009, the film was directed by Clint Eastwood and stars Morgan Freeman and Matt Damon. Based on actual events, the film runs 133 minutes and is rated PG-13 for some brief strong language. Show time begins at 6:50PM in the Zone (Please note the time change).

♦ “Alleluias” During Lent?

Why don't we use alleluias during Lent?

Background

Based on the Hebrew word, hallelu yah, meaning “Praise the Lord,” alleluia has been a word of great praise to God in the life of the church and was prominent in early Christian liturgies. Because of the penitential character of the season of Lent in the Western church, singing or saying the word “alleluia” has historically been suspended during Lent's forty days. This period of individual and congregational reflection on the quality of our baptismal faith and life suggests that the joyful nature of alleluia is more appropriately reserved for our Easter celebrations when it is given full and jubilant voice. An alternate gospel acclamation for Lent that omits the alleluia is provided for in Settings One through Ten of Holy Communion in Evangelical Lutheran Worship. Additional settings can be found in the Service Music portion (ELW #176-77) and in additional resources.

The omission of alleluia during Lent goes back at least to the fifth century in the western church. The custom of actually bidding it farewell, however, developed in the Middle Ages. The hymn “Alleluia, song of gladness” (Evangelical Lutheran Worship #318) contains a translation of an 11th century Latin text that compares an alleluia-less Lent to the exile of the Israelites in Babylon. The text then anticipates the joy of Easter when glad alleluias will return in all their heavenly splendor.

Along with a sung farewell to alleluia, some congregations have embraced the practice of physically “burying” the alleluia. A banner or other visual presentation of the alleluia is crafted and then “buried” (see below). This ritual practice is can be especially delightful and meaningful for children.

Practice

When do we bury the alleluia? Alleluia is appropriately bid farewell on the Sunday preceding Ash Wednesday (the Transfiguration of Our Lord, also called the last Sunday after the Epiphany in the Lutheran liturgical calendar). This is the last Sunday when alleluia will be used until the Vigil of Easter, or Easter Sunday for those congregations not holding a Vigil. The burial of the alleluia could otherwise be the culminating activity at a congregational Carnival (also known as Mardi Gras or Shrove Tuesday) celebration just before Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent.

♦ Tuesday Morning Lenten Bible Study

Lectio Divina: Listening to God Through the Epistles Beginning February 13th

A VERY ANCIENT art, practiced at one time by all Christians, is the technique known as lectio divina - a slow, contemplative praying of the Scriptures which enables the Bible, the Word of God, to become a means of union with God. This ancient practice has been kept alive in the Christian monastic tradition, and is one of the precious treasures of Benedictine monastics and oblates. Together with the Liturgy and daily manual labor, time set aside in a special way for lectio divina enables us to discover in our daily life an underlying spiritual rhythm. Within this rhythm we discover an increasing ability to offer more of ourselves and our relationships to the Father, and to accept the embrace that God is continuously extending to us in the person of his Son Jesus Christ.

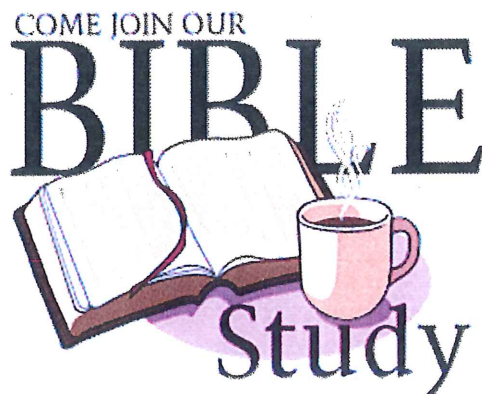

During Lent, we will be using the Lectio Divina method to encounter and listen to God through the second lessons (Epistles) appointed for each Lenten Sunday, including Passion (Palm) Sunday.

Join us on Tuesday mornings, 9:30 -11 a.m., beginning February 13th for this opportunity to pray the scriptures during Lent.

As we read the scripture lessons, we will be:

- ♦ Listening for the Gentle Touch of Christ the Word
- ♦ Identifying How Christ the Word speaks to you, and
- ♦ Discovering what Christ the Word Invites you to DO

A more in-depth article describing the history and practice of lectio divina can be found on the Zion website (www.zionhempfield.net)

♦ Sunday Lenten Study

SUNDAY SCHOLARS LENTEN STUDY: "HE CHOSE THE NAILS: What God Did to Win Your Heart"

Beginning Sunday, February 18, the "Parlor Class", also known as the "Sunday Scholars," will be using Max Lucado's program, "He Chose the Nails" as their Sunday morning study.

This program includes DVD presentations by Max Lucado and discussions of both the presentation and the scriptures cited.

Based on Mr. Lucado's popular book with the same title, this study gives participants the opportunity to delve into more deeply and appreciate more fully what Jesus Christ did for us when he chose the nails and the cross.

A Poem by Max Lucado

*Long ago, even before he made the world,
God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in his eyes.*

*His unchanging plan has always been to adopt
us into his own family by bringing us to himself through Jesus Christ.*

And this gave him great pleasure.

*So we praise God for the wonderful kindness
he has poured*

out on us because we belong to his dearly loved Son.

He is so rich in kindness that he purchased our freedom

*through the blood of his Son,
and our sins are forgiven....*

God's secret plan has now been revealed to us;

*it is a plan centered on Christ,
designed long ago according to his good pleasure.*

And this is his plan:

At the right time he will bring everything together

under the authority of Christ—everything in heaven and on earth. Furthermore, because of Christ,

*we have received an inheritance from God,
for he chose us from the beginning,
and all things happen just as he decided long ago.*

CROSS+WALK

"During the Middle Ages the practice of going on a pilgrimage to Jerusalem and, while there, following the path of Jesus' journey to the cross became a very popular devotion. To this day people still travel to Jerusalem in order to follow the footsteps of Jesus on the Via Dolorosa, the Way of Sorrows.

"Medieval pilgrims upon their return to Europe told others about their deeply moving experiences. Some of them even wrote books travelogues of sorts, describing the experience. Many more people than were able desired to make the journey. Thus, the practice developed of making a simulated journey.

"Some went so far as to construct scale models of the Way of Sorrows in order to simulate the journey in their own backyards. Out of this grew the devotion of the Stations of the Cross.

"There are fourteen stations [in Roman Catholic tradition... each representing some event which, in tradition, took place as Jesus made his ascent to Calvary and the Cross." Although some Protestant churches follow the Roman Catholic stations, During the devotion of walking the stations, the worshipper is led through a series of prayers and scripture readings, one set for each station. By means of this guided devotion the worshipper vicariously accompanies Jesus on that final journey. It is, in other words, a walk with Jesus."

There are also Protestant versions that have a different order and number. Protestant versions tend to focus on actual scriptural passages that describe the events that took place as Jesus made his ascent to Calvary and the Cross.

At Zion this year, we will focus on five significant "stations" of Jesus' journey to the cross through Cross+Walk, a program developed by Pastor JMe. An introduction to this Lenten theme will be provided during worship on Ash Wednesday, February 14, 12:00 & 7:00 PM. On Wednesdays during the Lenten season, beginning February 21, our Cross+Walk journey will begin. Each Wednesday of the season we will gather for a cross-generational event beginning with a soup supper followed by activities and worship for all ages.

Portions of the explanation, above, were taken from an article by Rev. Steven Frock, Pastor, Brayton & Hamlin Lutheran Parish, Iowa, and additional information was added by Pastor JMe.

Dates for February Cross+Walk Wednesdays

- +Feb 14 - Ash Wednesday

- +Feb. 29 – Cross+Walk #2

♦ First Holy Communion, Communion Training

First Holy Communion Instruction

First Holy Communion instruction will be offered during Lent for children who are currently in Kindergarten/First Grade. Classes will be held on Saturday mornings, March 10 & 17, 10 AM – 12 Noon. Parents are asked to attend the sessions with their children.

The children will celebrate their First Communion during worship on Palm Sunday, March 25th. Contact the Church Office (898-2911), go to the Zion Facebook Page, or our website to register your child for this special step in his/her Faith Formation. Registration ends on March 3rd.

Holy Communion Minister Training Saturday, February 17, 10:30-11:30 AM

"A celebration of Holy Communion in the home, at the bedside of an ill or homebound person, or in a clinical setting such as a nursing home, hospital or hospice, is one way for congregations to provide for communion of the ill, homebound, imprisoned, and others. This church provides two ways for this ministry to be carried out. The first is a service of Holy Communion led by an ordained pastor; the second is a distribution of the bread and wine that has been sent from the Sunday assembly's worship.

In the second option, the communion elements received by the ill, homebound, or imprisoned have been broken and shared at the assembly's worship and then brought to them as an extension of the worship that Sunday. This ministry offers these people (those unable to attend worship) a means of participating in the worship of the whole assembly, and it helps those who have gathered publicly to recognize their oneness with sisters and brothers who are absent. (Pastoral Care, p. 81)"

Persons interested in receiving this special training must contact Pastor JMe by Sunday, February 4th. Those serving as Holy Communion Ministers must have already received training to be pastoral care visitors.

♦ Meetings, Reminders, & Invitations

Ministry Team Leaders & Council Liaisons to Meet on Monday, February 19, 2018, 7 PM

A concern that is sometimes expressed at Zion is the lack of communication and coordination among the ministry teams.

For several years, Pastor JMe has brought the ministry team leaders together for quarterly meetings to share upcoming events or projects, coordinate schedules, and provide support for one another as a response to this concern. In addition, the Congregation Council appoints a "Council Liaison" to each ministry team to assist with communication of council actions and to bring to the council specific actions proposed by the team that need approval.

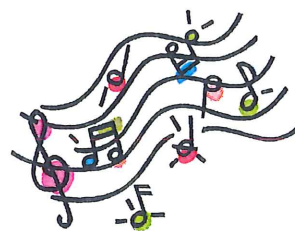

During 2017, the meeting of team leaders faced some obstacles with scheduling and lack of participation. Therefore, we are "re-forming" this "team of team leaders" in 2018. Our first meeting will be on Tuesday, February 27th, at 7 p.m. The Council Liaisons for the teams are invited to attend this meeting.

A Reminder & Invitation For Children!

Do you play an instrument? Do you like to sing?

Children's Choir meets at 9:15 AM every Sunday morning at the start of the Faith Formation hour. If you are interested in playing a piece for a special music offering during a service, let Dennis know!

As you can see on the Events Calendar, there are many things happening in the life of the church. However, there is currently no Parish Fellowship Team Leader. Thank you to the ministry teams and other individuals who have organized fellowship opportunities throughout the last year.

In looking ahead, would you be interested in helping to plan a spring outing or gathering for members & friends of Zion? If so, please contact Anne (zionluth@comcast.net)

Join us for a lively & entertaining workshop on the history of three Lancaster City clergymen! This workshop will discuss Reverend Thomas Barton, 1730-1780, Anglican Priest at Saint James; Gotthilf Henry Ernestus Muhlenberg, 1753-1815, Lutheran Pastor at Holy Trinity Lutheran; and Clifford Gray Twombly, 1869-1942, Episcopal Minister at Saint James—and the impact that they each had on the Lancaster community. Each was a dominant force in the community during the time of their service to their respective flocks in Lancaster.

Robert Frick is a graduate of Millersville University receiving a Bachelor of Science in education and a Master of Science in education, and earning a doctorate in educational administration from Temple University. Dr. Frick worked 45 years in the Lampeter-Strasburg School District and served as a teacher, administrative assistant, Director of Elementary Education, Assistant Superintendent, and Superintendent. Gender-Based Violence and the Church: A Path Forward

Monday, February 5 | 7:00 - 8:30 pm
Parish Resource Center
FREE to PRC Member Churches

Led by Dr. Stacie Molnar-Main, Community Educational Consultant

It seems that each day there are reminders in the media of how pervasive sexual violence is in our world. What is the role of the church and how can people of faith talk about and engage with issues of gender-based violence in ways that are educational, productive and transformative? This experiential workshop offers an entry point for pastors and lay leaders who are seeking a measured approach to bringing this topic to their communities and supporting faithful action.

Dr. Stacie Molnar-Main is an educational consultant whose work focuses on how institutions can support community-building, supportive climates and deliberative learning. She has been active in researching and supporting deliberative dialogue in schools for over a decade and recently began introducing the process to faith-based communities as an approach to supporting discernment about various issues.
