

ZION MUSIK CONCERT SERIES

ZION Musik is the concert series of Zion Lutheran Church. Its goal and aim comes from Martin Luther's quote: "Next to the Word of God, music deserves the highest praise". In its first season, ZION Musik will present a wide variety of concerts.

All concerts are free and open to the public.

For more information please visit our website:

ZION MUSIK CONCERT SERIES

ZION MUSIK SEASON 2020

All concerts begin at 4:00 pm

February 9: Isosceles Trio

Members Doris Hall-Gulati, clarinetist; Sara Male, cellist; and Maria Corley, pianist; are well known in the Lancaster area and beyond.

March 29: Lancaster Brass Quintet

The Lancaster Brass Quintet made its debut in 1982 and has been active in the musical community of central Pennsylvania since that time. These professional musicians bring the sound and excitement of brass music to audiences by performing a wide variety of literature, including jazz, show tunes, sacred music, marches and original works for brass.

April 26: Pennsylvania Flute Choir

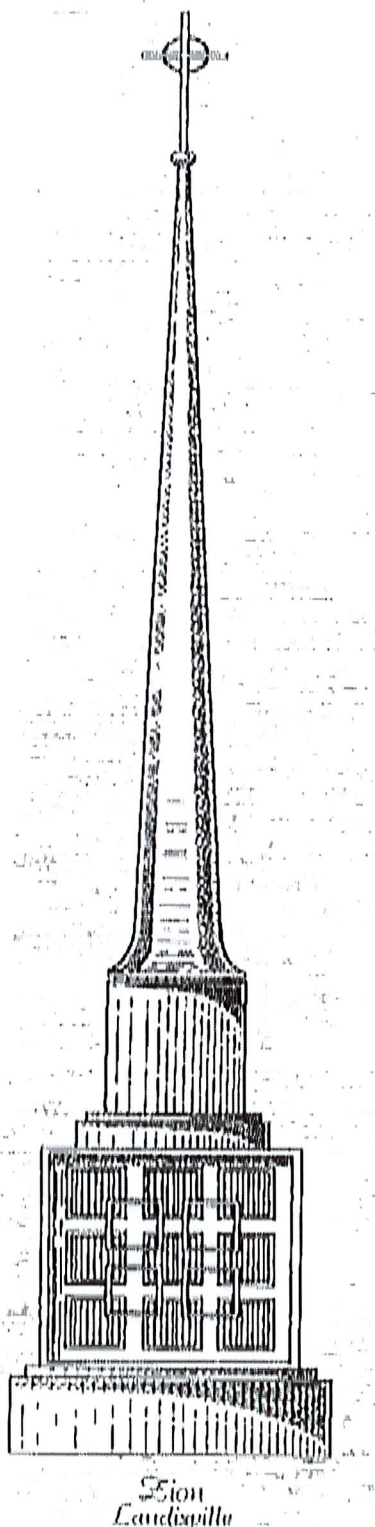

The Pennsylvania Flute Choir is an auditioned, community group formed in 2002 by flutist Georgia Dimaano. Heidi Bingham is the Music Director and Conductor for the Choir. Heidi joined us in 2015 and is excited to now be the conductor of the group. She began playing the flute at an early age, and has been part of orchestras, bands, and flute choirs in Oregon, Utah, Chicago, and Pennsylvania. She also had the unique experience of conducting and performing with music groups in Shanghai, China. In addition to her work with the Flute Choir, she does free-lance performance and teaches private lessons. She has a BA of Music Performance and a Master of Music Education and is continuing her education towards a Doctorate in Music Education. The choir has grown from a one-time recital group to an active, professional ensemble. Its members hail from southeastern Pennsylvania, Delaware, and New Jersey.

ZION MUSIK SEASON 2020

All concerts begin at 4:00 pm

October 11: Rizzetta's Tones

Rizzetta's Tones is a Celtic and Folk band, comprised of 'fraternal twin' hammer dulcimers, silver flute, high and low whistles, and guitars. Their repertoire includes music from Ireland, Scotland, and the United States, drawing as well from the traditions of Finland, Brazil, France, Macedonia, and many other lands. Our name, honors Sam Rizzetta: engineer, scientist, pilot, dulcimer builder and player, innovator, composer, teacher, and friend. Sam has been notably instrumental in the resurrection and improvement of the hammer dulcimer from the 1960's to the present, and continues to work, teach, build, and play in West Virginia.

December 13: Hershey Handbell Ensemble

Note: This concert will begin at 3:00pm

Formed in 2004, this auditioned community handbell ensemble is based in south-central Pennsylvania. They performed their inaugural concerts in Lebanon and Carlisle in Spring of 2004. The sixteen member group performs seasonally on seven octaves of Malmark Handbells, Handchimes, and assorted other instruments. The ensemble was formed to fulfill the need for an auditioned community ensemble comprised of persons able to play advanced literature, interested in advancing the art of handbell ringing through education and performance, and interested in uniting people through this musical art. The ensemble is under the direction of Artistic Director, Dr. Shawn Gingrich.
