Devotionals from Pastor Sell

Thursday, April 15

Recently a male robin came to the pond. He splashed in the water for quite a while. He splashed water on his head, under his wings, and every place he could until he was soaking wet. He was so involved in his bathing, he totally ignored me as I put recyclables in the bin. He waited a few more moments, shook himself, and flew off shedding glistening drops of water.

Christian baptism is like that. We are wet, cleaned, and refreshed in the promises of God. Then we 'fly' off into the world sharing the good news of Jesus life, death, and resurrection – God's love so freely given and shared.
