Easter 2021

Devotionals from Pastor Sell

Friday, April 16

More than 40 years ago I purchased an oil painting at an LGH Art Show/Sale to raise funds for the hospital. Local artist Mabel Wenger painted the picture of the Hess Homestead on Highville Road. The painting has hung in a living room and in a dining room. I treasure the painting. It renews my soul each time I look at it. I have never been able to find anything about the artist or the farm, but now that I am back in Lancaster County the search is on.

We all need something to call us away from the worries which can overwhelm us. For Christians the cross of Christ can restore us, center us, and call us back to what really matters. The cross of Jesus reminds us that we are forgiven, loved and called to be a light in the world.
