DAILY DEVOTIONAL FROM PASTOR SELL

Friday, December 3

As I drove past the new hospital, I glanced toward the sky and was surprised by the many airplane contrails. The ever-broadening trails went in many directions. It was the Saturday before Thanksgiving and I thought of the places people were traveling to celebrate the holiday with family and friends.

The good news is that we don't have to buy a ticket or fill up the car's gas tank to get to God. He is there with us all the time. A prayer, a brief thank you, a meditation on the majesty of God is all it takes to sit in the presence of the ruler of the universe.
