Lent 2021 – God’s Lessons All Around Us Devotionals from Pastor Sell

LESSONS DRIVING AROUND.

Friday, February 26

I lived in Lancaster in the late 1970s. As I drive around these days so much has changed. A beautiful farm has become the LGH Health Campus with its many buildings and endless parking lots. A store I liked is now almost a ruin with a ‘for sale’ sign out front. I used to be able to drive to the east side of town with ease, now I find myself looking for all the back roads so I can avoid the highways. The area has greatly changed in the last 40 years.

Life brings lots of changes. I live in a new community. I am still learning the secrets of my house. I swallow my pride when I ask my daughter to change the light bulbs because the ceiling is too high when you are 5 foot 1. I miss the friends I’ve had for years and years. In the midst of change there is still stability – I CAN find the east side of town; there is adventure to finding the old in the middle of the new; I can learn to appreciate the 7 inches my daughter has over me. Then too, in all the changes of life is the faithfulness of God who holds me in the palm of his hand. Thanks be to God.
