DAILY DEVOTIONAL FROM PASTOR SELL

Friday, January 14

I walked through the church the week after New Year's. The Christmas trees were gone. Three poinsettias stood watch by the lectern. The manger was still on the baptismal font but the pictures of the three wise men were in front. The signs of Christmas were slowly fading away. The cross behind the altar still stood firm and high as it does throughout the year. The sign of Jesus sacrifice for our salvation is there to remind us of Jesus presence in all times and places. It is important to remember Jesus did not remain a cute newborn, he grew into a man with a mission to bring hope to humanity.
