DAILY DEVOTIONAL FROM PASTOR SELL

Thursday, January 20

I love to watch flash mob videos! I have seen orchestras, college choirs singing in hotel atriums, and pop-up plays. When the flash mob appears in a mall or a train station in Europe everybody stops and gets out their cell phones. Everything stops for a few minutes of unexpected delight. It looks like so much fun. Today (1/10) I watched a flash mob in Sydney, Australia. It started out as a small group of Irish dancers and then grew to several hundred including musicians. The cheering at the end was phenomenal. I must admit I would love to be part of a flash mob sometime.

We all need a little fun in our lives. Although we do not have specifics about Jesus' fun times, we do know he took time to be with Mary, Martha, and Lazarus. Consider doing something for fun today.
