DAILY DEVOTIONAL FROM PASTOR SELL

Friday, July 2

The goal for the today is not to be better than someone else, but to be better than you were yesterday.

Today's media tells us we should strive to be like others. We should be thin, blonde, and beautiful. We should have the muscles of a body builder. Designer clothes are better than those from the bargain store. We are told constantly to be something other than who we already are.

God created each one of us as unique individuals. Each person has different skills and abilities to share with the world. We are all different in shape and size, and in so many other ways. All the diversity is God given. Rejoice in who you are and strive to be the best possible you.
