DAILY DEVOTIONAL FROM PASTOR SELL

Thursday, June 10

I have been thinking a lot about caretaking lately. My house is 130 years old and technically I “own” it (with the bank, of course.) I pay the bills. I do the maintenance and make the improvements, but in reality, I am the caretaker for this time in history. Others have been caretakers in the past and still others will be caretakers when I am gone. Being a caretaker means I have been entrusted with something of value. That trust means I need to do my best with what I have been given.

As Christians we have been entrusted with the good news of Jesus. We are caretakers of the faith handed to us through the centuries. It is our task to use it and tend it so it can be passed on to the next generation of believers. Tend it well and care for it my friends.
