JUST LIVING AND THINKING

Friday, March 12

I couldn't sleep one night so I got up, made coffee, and got to work. There is no use lying in bed. I went out on the side porch to enjoy the quiet of the night. As I stood there, I noticed the moon light reflecting off the pond. It shimmered and danced in the rippling water. What a magical moment!

Christians often talk about being a reflection of the love of God. To be in the presence of someone who reflects that love is a magical moment too. Give some thought today to where you have seen the reflection of Christ's love. Take a moment to give thanks for someone who has reflected love in your life.
