DAILY DEVOTIONAL FROM PASTOR SELL

Thursday, March 3

I watched two planes make parallel trails across the morning sky. One plane was behind the other as they went in the same direction to the southwest. As I watched, one plane seemed to move ahead only to have the other seem to attempt to catch up. It was interesting to watch. I wondered where they were going and who was on board. I will never know.

As Christians we are on parallel paths in following Jesus. Some have a deep spirituality, others less so. Some can speak easily about their faith; others cannot speak freely. Do not compare yourself to others. Just follow in Jesus' footsteps.
