DAILY DEVOTIONAL FROM PASTOR SELL

Wednesday, March 9

Such a racket outside! A huge flock of geese was heading north honking up a storm. It was as if they were trying to encourage each other to keep going. Do you remember when your children were small and you were on a long trip by car. The children insistently asked “Are we there yet?” The adult in charge usually responded with something like “Just a little longer.” That little bit of encouragement held off the question for a few minutes.

The verse for today is I Thessalonians 5:11 – “Therefore, encourage one another and build up each other as indeed you are doing.”

Who can you encourage today?
