Devotionals from Pastor Sell

Wednesday, May 12

I was awake before dawn one morning and stepped out on the porch to enjoy the night. A half-moon was high in the clear night sky and a broad swath of moonlight reflected off the pond. It was not only bright, but it was also luminescent as it rippled from the splashing waterfall. It does not get better than that!

Christians are called to reflect the light of Christ in the same way. We are not the light, but we reflect the light. When the love of Christ fills our hearts and souls, we reflect that light to those around us. We see hope, forgiveness, new life, and much, much more. In these changing and stress filled times, the world needs more of the reflected light of Christ. It is like the words we use at baptisms – “Let your like so shine before others that they may see your good works and glorify you Father in heaven.” (Matthew 5:16)
