Devotionals from Pastor Sell

Tuesday, May 4

While driving from Mount Joy to Landisville one day I noticed a small splat on the road and a line of drops. Obviously a vehicle was leaking something. The drops got smaller and smaller until they stopped just before the Salunga sign. I was reminded of Jesus parable of the seeds in which some fell on rocky ground -- some fell on good ground and grew well and some grew for a time and then withered and died. What Jesus taught so long ago is just as true today. Some who professed faith in Christ will walk away as churches reopen; some will attend worship for a while and then stop. Thankfully many will lift high the Cross of Christ and strive to make the church vibrant once more.
