DAILY DEVOTIONAL FROM PASTOR SELL

Wednesday, November 3

As Zion prepared for a recent funeral, I found myself thinking more and more about the funeral pall used to cover the casket or cremains urn during the service in the sanctuary. The pall traditionally symbolizes that we are all covered by the grace of God in the cross of Christ. It reminds we are all equal before the Lord of creation. As St. Paul said in Galatians 3:27-28, “As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer male or female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus.”

What a wonderful thought for the day!
