DAILY DEVOTIONAL FROM PASTOR SELL

Wednesday, October 13

“Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us,
And prosper for us the work of our hands –
O prosper the work of our hands!”

Those words were read during worship on Sunday, October 10. They are from Psalm 90:17.

There are days when my arms are full of laundry and my hands are wet with dish soap. There are days when I sweat after working in the garden and my hands are black with dirt. I wonder what it is all for. The laundry and dishes will be there again tomorrow, and the weeds will need to be pulled again in a few weeks. God, however, says all work is good, all of it has value if done in his name. We may not understand how, or why, or when but God will prosper the work of our hands.
