DAILY DEVOTIONAL FROM PASTOR SELL

Wednesday, September 22

As I sit here in Cooper House, I can hear John at the organ in the church. Granted, I don't hear the full bold sounds of the organ, just enough to identify the tune and some chords.

Christians don't need to be bold and brash to share the Good News of Jesus, it just needs to be loud enough to be heard and recognized through the noise of the world. A smile or a word can sometimes have more impact than loudly shouting Bible verses.
